[] I told him it had also been brought to my attention that [] and Marsh acknowledged this. I told him that in view of [] status and the fact that our people felt any contact with him by us at this time might be counterproductive for both of us, we preferred not to see him. [] seems to be doing very well on his own and it would seem best to let him continue that way. Marsh said he certainly respected our judgment on this and appreciated our looking into it.

14. [] Checked with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, about the timing of our briefing of the Senate Appropriations Committee on both the budgets of the intelligence community and the Agency. Woodruff agreed with my assumption that this would not take place next week, but would probably be scheduled some time during the last week of this month (the week of 24 May). I talked with him about the arrangements I would like to make with the Alderson Reporting Company if a transcript is to be taken and Woodruff had no problem with this at all. (This is essentially the same arrangement we have with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on their transcripts.) I will contact Mr. Frank Strout at Alderson to work out the details.

I briefed Woodruff on a number of current intelligence items including: Soviet silo construction, Soviet Mongolian border forces, and Soviet port facility in Egypt.
